Yeah -- I plan to leave. I checked in with Lance a few minutes ago.

I haven't heard anything from Randy/Rob. So I guess they are getting set up.

I figure everyone is so focused on the Typhoon, too.

I will stay in contact this evening (but I have guests). Not the end of the world if I don't get an email out today. I don't have anything to send. Maybe Harry has, but it has not been passed on to me.

No worries if you have to leave at 4. Just going to go over what we all discussed earlier today.
